Contents

Preface xxiii
Acknowledgments xxv
Authors’ Note xxxi

PART I
Introduction to International Law and Law Making 1

Chapter 1
Tracing the Evolution of International Law Through Two Problems 3

I. The Chad-Libya War over the Aouzou Strip 3
   A. The Law of Nations in Its Traditional Incarnation 4
   B. Resolution of the Chad-Libya Conflict 11
   C. International Law’s Development in the Twentieth Century 14

II. The Rainbow Warrior Affair 16
   A. New Actors, New Issues, New Processes 22
      1. International Institutions 23
      2. Non-State Actors 24
      3. Non-Traditional Law Making and Enforcement 25
   B. Conceptual Challenges 26
      1. Legalization and Its Limits 26
      2. The Fragmentation of International Law and Regime Interaction 27
      3. The Persistent Puzzle of Compliance 28
   C. Ways of Understanding International Law 29

Chapter 2
Making Law in a Decentralized System 33

I. Creating and Using Treaties: The Whaling Regime 35
   A. The Problem 36
   B. Why Do States Enter into Treaties? 37
   C. Treaties as Frameworks for Further Regulation 40
   D. Applying Treaty Law to the Whaling Convention 40
      1. Background on Treaty Law 40
      3. Invalidating Treaties: Coercion and Consent 45
      4. Invalidity and Jus Cogens 47
      5. Interpreting Treaties 49
      6. Treaty Withdrawal, Breach, and Termination 56
   E. Reservations to Treaties 60
   F. Treaties and Sovereignty 66
II. Custom and Soft Law: Regulating Foreign Direct Investment
   A. The Problem
   B. Background on the Formation of Customary International Law
      1. State Practice
      2. Opinio Juris
      3. From Practice to Law
   C. Discerning and Applying Custom: Foreign Direct Investment (FDI) and Expropriation
   D. The Soft Law Alternative
   E. The World Bank Guidelines on the Treatment of Foreign Direct Investment
   F. Note on Incorporating Principles from Domestic Law

PART II
Participants in the International Legal Process

Chapter 3
The Traditional Actors: States and International Organizations

I. The Formation and Breakup of States: Crimea’s
   Separation from Ukraine
   A. The Problem
   B. What is a State? Requisites of Statehood
   C. Separation Anxiety: Self-Determination and Its Limits
      1. The Pre-UN Charter Era
      2. Self-Determination After the UN Charter
   D. The Yugoslavia Precedents on Secession
      1. The Initial Dissolution
      2. Kosovo’s Secession from Serbia
   E. Other Practice on the Legality of Secession
   F. Evaluating the Arguments for Crimea’s Secession
   G. Recognition of New States by Outside Actors: Does It Matter?

II. The Process of Governmental Change: New Governments in Cambodia
   A. The Problem
   B. The China Precedent
   C. The 1979 Credentials Fight
   D. The Next Stages
   E. Integration of Human Rights Concerns: The Haiti Episode and Beyond
      1. Extraconstitutional Changes of Power
      2. Civil Wars
   F. Note on Consequences of State and Governmental Change in Domestic Law

III. International Organizations as Global Actors: The United Nations and Apartheid
   A. The Problem
Chapter 4
The Challenge of Non-State Actors

I. Non-Governmental Organizations as Participants in International Arenas: The UNAIDS Program
   A. The Problem
   B. Evolving Modes of NGO Participation
   C. Representativeness of NGOs
   D. NGO Influence and Accountability

II. Corporations as International Actors: Worker Safety in Bangladeshi Apparel Factories
   A. The Problem
   B. Attempts at Multilateral Regulation of Corporate Conduct
      1. ILO Treaties
      2. Standard-Setting Outside of Treaties: Three Approaches
   C. Corporate Self-Regulation: Codes of Conduct
   D. Coda: Options for Direct Participation of Corporations in Law Making

III. States of the United States in the International Arena: Massachusetts’s Sanctions on Burma
   A. The Problem
   B. State and Local Foreign Policy Making: Some Precedents
   C. International Reactions
   D. Domestic Reactions
   E. State Prerogatives in the Absence of Congressional Action

PART III
International Law and Domestic Law
C. Guidance from the Supreme Court? 221
D. Are There Limits to the Use of Congressional-Executive Agreements? 225
E. Are There Limits to the President’s Power to Make International Agreements? 229

III. Breaking International Law: Consular Notification and the Arrest of Foreign Nationals 233
A. The Problem 234
B. Addressing Conflicts Between International and Domestic Legal Obligations
   1. The Execution of Angel Breard 235
   2. The LaGrand Case 237
   3. Avena and Its Aftermath 238
   4. The Supreme Court Addresses the Domestic Effects of ICJ Judgments 240

IV. Opening and Closing the Courthouse Door to International Law Claims: Seeking Redress for Corporate Complicity in Human Rights Violations 249
A. The Problem 249
B. Opening the Door to International Law Claims? The Alien Tort Statute 250
C. The Sosa Decision: “The Door Is Still Ajar” 253
D. Is the Door Still Ajar? 257
E. Closing the Door to International Legal Claims? Judging the Acts of Foreign Governments 262

Chapter 6
The Reach of Domestic Law in the International Arena: Jurisdiction and Its Limits 273

I. Limiting the Reach of Domestic Law 273
A. The Lotus Case 274
B. Creating International Law on Jurisdiction 276

II. Jurisdiction to Make and Apply Law: The EU Directive on Aircraft Emissions 278
A. The Problem 278
B. Prescribing Law Based on Territorial Links
   1. Extending the Reach of the Territorial Principle 280
   2. A European Alternative? 288
C. Resolving the Dispute over the Aviation Directive 290
D. Note on Other Bases for Prescriptive Jurisdiction 292
   1. The Nationality Principle 292
   2. The Protective Principle 293
   3. The Passive Personality Principle 294
   4. Universal Jurisdiction 295

III. Capturing Criminals Abroad: The Arrest of Slavko Dokmanovic 298
A. The Problem 299
B. Seizing War Criminals: The Eichmann Precedent 300
C. Kidnapping or Extradition?: The Alvarez-Machain Case 304
D. Challenging Irregular Renditions in Other Jurisdictions 308
PART IV
The Protection of Human Dignity

Chapter 7
The Claims of Individuals on States: International Human Rights

I. Protecting Political and Civil Rights: U.S. Use of “Enhanced Interrogation Techniques”
   A. The Problem
   B. International Human Rights Law and Torture
      1. The Universal Declaration of Human Rights
      2. The International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights
      3. The Convention Against Torture
      4. The Extraterritorial Reach of Human Rights Treaties
      5. Implementation Mechanisms
      6. Court Decisions on Torture
   C. Applying the Law on Torture to Detainees in the “Global War on Terrorism”
      1. Department of Justice Memoranda on the Geneva Conventions and the Convention Against Torture
         a. The Definition of Torture
         b. The Necessity Defense
      2. Torture Revisited
         a. New Memoranda from the Justice Department
         b. Congress Responds: The Detainee Treatment Act
         c. The Committee Against Torture Reacts
      3. Beyond the Torture Convention: The Supreme Court, Congress, and the President Reinterpret the Geneva Conventions
II. Narrowing Human Rights Treaties: The United States and the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights
   A. The Problem
   B. The Effects of U.S. Reservations
   C. Assessing the Validity of Reservations and Other Statements
III. Guaranteeing Economic, Social, and Cultural Rights: A Right to Food? 379
A. The Problem 381
B. Background on Economic, Social, and Cultural Rights 382
C. The U.S. Position on Economic, Social, and Cultural Rights 386
D. The Right to Food 388

IV. Balancing Human Rights and Other Interests: Religious Freedom, Women’s Rights, and “L’Affaire du Foulard” 391
A. The Problem 392
B. Background on Religious Freedom and Women’s Rights 394
1. Religious Freedom 395
2. Women’s Rights 395
3. Religious Displays and the Public-Private Distinction 397
C. The ECHR Decides 399
D. Debating Cultural Relativism 406

Chapter 8
Mitigating the Harms of War: International Humanitarian Law 415

I. Placing Limits on the Conduct of War: Preventing the Use of Nuclear Weapons 416
A. The Problem 417
1. Development and Initial Use of the Atomic Bomb 417
2. Postwar Developments 418
3. The Nuclear Non-Proliferation Treaty 419
4. The Comprehensive Test Ban Treaty 420
B. The Evolution of International Humanitarian Law 421
C. The ICJ Opines on Nuclear Weapons 425

II. Protecting Non-Combatants: The Qana Incident 436
A. The Problem 437
B. The UN Report 438
C. The Israeli Response and the UN Rejoinder 442
D. The Geneva Conventions and Customary Law 444
E. The Implications of Qana 448
F. Applying the Lessons of Qana to Kosovo 450
G. Afterword on the 2008-2009 and 2014 Conflicts in Gaza 455

III. Occupying Foreign Territory: Israel’s Wall in the West Bank 458
A. The Problem 458
B. Background on the Law of Occupation 459
C. The ICJ and the Israeli High Court Look at the Law of Occupation 463
D. Note on “Transformative Occupation” 472

Chapter 9
Individual Accountability for Violations of Human Dignity: International Criminal Law and Beyond 475

I. Identifying International Crimes 476
A. Nullum Crimen Sine Lege and the Nuremberg Trials 477
B. Codification of International Criminal Law: The Genocide Convention 481
C. Modern Codification of Crimes Against Humanity 483

II. Wartime Abuses: U.S. Treatment of Prisoners at Abu Ghraib 485
A. The Problem 486
B. Prosecuting the Immediate Perpetrators at Abu Ghraib 488
C. Responsibility of Military and Civilian Commanders 490
1. International Law on Command Responsibility 490
2. Governmental and NGO Views of Individual Responsibility at Abu Ghraib 492
D. Defenses to War Crimes? 494
1. Following Orders 494
2. Duress 496

III. Domestic Fora for Justice After Atrocities: Chile After Augusto Pinochet 500
A. The Problem 502
B. To Prosecute or to Pardon? 503
1. The View from International Human Rights Bodies 503
2. The View from a Domestic Tribunal 508
C. Mass Justice on the Cheap? Rwanda’s Gacaca Program 512
D. Prosecuting Pinochet Outside Chile 515
E. Beyond Chile 520

IV. The International Criminal Court as a Venue for Justice: Prosecuting Atrocities After Kenya’s 2007 Elections 524
A. The Problem 525
B. Prelude to the ICC: The UN’s Ad Hoc Criminal Tribunals 526
C. The ICC: Structure and Jurisdiction 528
D. Complementarity and the Challenges to ICC Legitimacy 532
1. The ICC Proceeds with the Kenya Defendants 532
2. The ICC and the Situation in Libya 533
3. Accusations of ICC Bias and Selectivity 536
E. United States Policy Toward the ICC 539

Part V
Interdependence and Integration: The Challenge of Collective Action Problems 543

Chapter 10
Responding to the First Global Commons Issue: The Law of the Sea 547

I. The Territorial Sea and International Straits: Regulating the Passage of Nuclear-Armed Submarines 550
A. The Problem 550
B. Regulating Offshore Waters 551
C. Developing a Regime for International Straits 555
D. Toward Codification 560
E. Note on Anti-Piracy Efforts off the Horn of Africa 563
II. Exploitation and Protection of the Water and Fish: The Canada/Spain Turbot Conflict

A. The Problem 565

B. Earlier Fishing Disputes: The United Kingdom-Iceland “Cod Wars” 566

C. Toward Codification 570

D. Toward a Solution for Straddling Stocks 574

E. Note on Dispute Resolution Under UNCLOS 578

III. Economic Exploitation of the Continental Shelf: Competing Claims to the Arctic Region

A. The Problem 580

B. Unilateral Claims to the Continental Shelf: The Truman Proclamation and Reactions 582

C. Prescription Through the United Nations 584

D. Norms for Dividing the Arctic’s Continental Shelf? 586

E. The Arctic Today 597

F. Note on the Deep Seabed Mining Regime of the 1982 Law of the Sea Convention 599

Chapter 11

Protecting the International Environment 603

I. International Waters: Resolving Conflict over the Nile

A. The Problem 606

B. Allocating the Nile’s Waters 608

C. Development of Norms on International Watercourses 611
   1. Procedural Norms 611
   2. Substantive Norms 613

D. Guidance from the World Court? 616
   1. The Gabcikovo-Nagymoros Dispute 616
   2. The Argentina-Uruguay Pulp Mills Dispute 621

E. An Institutional Approach 624

II. Protecting the Earth’s Atmosphere: Saving the Ozone Layer

A. The Problem 627

B. The Ozone Regime 628
   1. The Politics of Ozone Depletion: The Run-up to Vienna 628
   2. The Politics of Ozone Depletion: From Vienna to Montreal 631
   3. The Politics of Ozone Depletion: From Montreal to London and Beyond 637

C. Promoting Compliance with the Ozone Treaties 640

D. Achievements to Date and Challenges Ahead 644

E. Note on the Precautionary Principle 646

III. Protecting the Planet: Combating Climate Change

A. The Problem 652

B. The Climate Regime 653
   1. Act I: The Road to Rio 653
   2. Act II, Scene One: From Rio to Kyoto 655
   3. Act II, Scene Two: From Kyoto to Bonn 658
   4. Act III, Scene One: From Bali to Copenhagen 660
   5. Act III, Scene Two: From Durban to Lima 662
Chapter 12
Managing the World Economy

I. WTO Dispute Settlement: Balancing Trade and Environmental Values
   A. The Problem
   B. GATT Dispute Settlement
   C. Trade and Environment at the GATT: The Tuna-Dolphin Dispute
   D. The Evolution of Dispute Settlement in the Trade Regime
   E. Trade and Environment at the WTO

II. Regulating Trade in Services: Antigua Challenges a U.S. Ban on Internet Gambling
   A. The Problem
   B. The General Agreement on Trade in Services: An Overview
   C. The Appellate Body Report
   D. The Aftermath

III. Resolving Investment Disputes: Economic Turmoil in Argentina
   A. The Problem
   B. Bilateral Investment Treaties
   C. Challenging Argentina’s Actions
      1. Expropriation
      2. Fair and Equitable Treatment
      3. Argentina’s Necessity Defense
   D. Review of Arbitral Awards
   E. Challenges to the Legitimacy of Investor-State Arbitration

PART VI
Challenges to International Law

Chapter 13
The Use of Force

I. The Evolution of the Law Governing the Use of Force
II. Does International Law Constrain Aggression? The 1991 and 2003 Gulf Wars
   A. The Problem
   B. Initial Responses: Condemnations and Sanctions
   C. Deciding to Use Force
      1. The UN Ultimatum
      2. The U.S. Sanctions Debate
      3. Police Action or Self-Defense?
   D. The War and Its Aftermath
      1. Operations Desert Storm and Desert Sabre
      2. The Cessation of Hostilities
      3. Containing Iraq After the War
   E. Operation Iraqi Freedom and Its Aftermath
      1. Increasing International Pressure on Iraq
2. The UN Debate on the Use of Force and Resolution 1441 735
3. U.S. Congressional Authorization for the Use of Force Against Iraq 737
4. The UN Debate on the Need for Military Action 737
5. The War in Iraq 738
F. Debating the Legality of the War 738
1. The Revival Argument 738
2. The Effect of Resolution 1441 on the Revival Argument 740
3. Anticipatory Self-Defense 743
III. Intervention and Self-Defense: Civil War in Syria 746
A. The Problem 747
B. The Evolving Law on Intervention in Internal Conflicts 748
C. The ICJ Opines on Intervention 749
1. Nicaragua v. United States 750
2. Democratic Republic of Congo v. Uganda 757
D. Applying the Law on Intervention to Syria 763
1. Intervention by Invitation 763
2. Counter-Intervention 765
3. Self-Defense 766
4. Other Justifications 768
E. Note on Peacekeeping 768
IV. Humanitarian Intervention: Stopping Repression in Kosovo 771
A. The Problem 773
B. Debating the Legality of NATO Intervention 774
1. International Views on NATO’s Decision to Use Force 775
2. Yugoslavia Sues NATO in the ICJ 778
   a. Belgium’s Defense 779
   b. Yugoslavia’s Position on Necessity 780
   c. The Court’s Decision on Jurisdiction 781
3. Scholarly Reactions to Kosovo 782
C. From Humanitarian Intervention to the Responsibility to Protect 784
D. The Limits of R2P 786
1. The Security Council Acts: Air Strikes in Libya 787
2. The Security Council Stalls on Syria 790
E. Chemical Weapons in Syria 791

Chapter 14
Conceptual Challenges to International Law: Legitimacy, Relevance, and Justice 795
I. Legitimacy and Authority in the International System: Security Council Anti-Terrorism Sanctions 797
A. The Problem 798
B. The Lockerbie Precedent 799
C. Judicial Challenges to Security Council Decisions 803