CONTENTS

Preface xxv

PART I
THE ENGLISH COMMON LAW: MEDIEVAL ORIGINS

CHAPTER 1
CRIMINAL PROCEDURE AND THE ORIGINS OF THE JURY SYSTEM 3

I. Kingship and Law 5
   A. Anglo-Saxon Kingship and Law 5
   B. Customary Law 7
   C. Norman Feudalism 10

II. Local Society and Governance 13
   A. The Open Field System 13
   B. The Social Relations of the Open Fields 16
   C. Local Courts: County and Hundred 18
   D. Walter v. William Thomas (1247) 20
   E. Policing Before Police: The Hue and Cry 21
   F. Babington v. Yellow Taxi Corp. (1928) 23
   G. The Frankpledge System 27

III. The Appeal of Felony 29
   A. Jordan v. Simon (1219) 30
   B. Appeal Procedure 30
   C. Thomas v. Alan Harvester (1202) 34

IV. The Jury of Accusation 35
   A. The Assize of Clarendon (1166) 35
   B. The Presentment System 37

V. The Ordeals 43
   A. Practice and Theory 44
   B. Avoiding the Ordeals: Sanctuary and Abjuration 46
      1. Fleta’s Account 46
      2. A Bedfordshire Case (1276) 47
   C. Elective Jury Trial 48
      1. The Willingham Fire Case (1202) 48
      2. Maitland’s Account 49
   D. Abolition of the Ordeals 51
      1. Fourth Lateran Council, Canon 18 (1215) 51
      2. The Critique of the Ordeals 51
VI. Replacing God in the Judgment Seat: European and English Responses to the Abolition of the Ordeals 54
   A. Europe: Professional Judges, the Roman-Canon Law of Proof, and the Law of Torture 54
   B. Jury Trial: The English Response to the Abolition of the Ordeals 58
      1. The Decree of 1219 59
      2. The Consensual Basis of Jury Trial 59
      3. de la Hethe’s Case (1221) 60
      5. The Overlap of Presentment and Trial Juries 62

   ↠ THE LIVING LAW: Torture and the Law Today 63

VII. The Jury System at Work in the Eyre Court 64
   A. The General Eyre 64
   B. The Revenue Dimension 66
   C. Wiltshire Eyre Roll Excerpts (1249) 67
   D. Separating the Juries of Accusation and Trial 71

VIII. Why Group Inquest? 72
   A. Beyond Witnessing 72
   ↠ THE LIVING LAW: Jury Unanimity Today 75
   B. Judicial Economy 76
   C. The Timing Thesis 77

CHAPTER 2
CIVIL JUSTICE 85

I. The Writ System 87
   A. Illustrative Writs 87
      1. Praecipe 87
      2. Praecipe/ostensurus quare 88
      3. Ostensurus quare 88
   B. Origins and Development of the Writ System 88
   C. Chancery: The “Writ Shop” 93
   D. The Forms of Action 96
   E. Writ of Right 97
      1. Protecting Landholding 98
      2. Trial by Battle 98
      3. Jury Trial and Jurisdictional Expansion 100
   F. The Assize of Novel Disceisin 101
      1. Glanvill’s Exemplar 101
      2. Protecting Quiet Possession 101
   G. The Writ of Trespass 103
      1. Vi et armis 103
      2. “Case” 104
      3. The Cessation of Writ Creation 105

II. Procedure Without Writ at Common Law: Instigation by Bill or Petition 105
   A. Bills in Eyre 105
      1. Shropshire Eyre Bills (1292) 106
      2. Expanding the Common Law 109
   B. King’s Bench Bills 110
III. Parliamentary Petitions
A. The High Court of Parliament
   1. Petition
   2. Response
B. Case of the Disappearing Highway (1305)
   1. Petition
   2. Response
C. Responses to Petitions (1305)
   1. Oxford University
   2. John of Bradley
   3. John of Crofton
D. The Changing Role of Parliament

IV. The Common Law Courts
A. Formation of the Central Courts
   1. Common Pleas
   2. King’s Bench
   3. Exchequer
B. The Nisi Prius System
C. Magna Carta and the Common Law

V. The Path Not Taken
A. Ecclesiastical Jurisdiction
B. Pledge of Faith
   1. Barbour v. Lynche (1420)
   2. Wood v. Lyford (1464)
C. Roman-Canon Civil Procedure
   1. Witness Testimony: Examination of John de Draycote
   2. Contrasting Roman-Canon and English Procedure
D. The Legacy from Roman Law

CHAPTER 3
SHAPING THE LEGAL PROFESSIONS: BAR, BENCH, AND BOOKS

I. The Legal Professions: Pleading and Pleaders
A. Pleading
   1. St. George v. Prioress of Easebourne (1293)
   2. Pleading to Issue
B. Law French
   1. Origins and Character
C. Bench and Bar
   1. Fortescue on the Serjeants’ Order (c. 1470)
   2. Judicial Recruitment from the Bar
   3. The Decline of the Serjeants’ Order
   4. Bifurcation and the Impoverishment of the Judicial Role
D. Attorneys
   1. The Attorney’s Role in Litigation
   2. Attorney and Solicitor

II. Legal Education
A. Before the Inns: A London Law School?
B. The Inns of Court

III. Early Legal Literature
A. The Medieval Law Books
   1. Glanvill
   2. Bracton
PART II

THE SECOND ENGLISH LEGAL SYSTEM

CHAPTER 4

THE TRANSFORMATION OF THE JURIES AND THE RECONSTRUCTION OF CRIMINAL AND CIVIL JUSTICE

I. The Jury of Accusation: From Presentment to Indictment
   A. The End of the Eyres
      1. Obtaining Jurors
      2. The County-Wide Grand Jury
   B. Indictment
   C. Indictment as Safeguard
      1. The Statute of 1352
      2. The Statute of 1368
      3. Ending Lynch Justice
   D. Procedure Without Indictment
      1. Criminal Information
      2. Qui Tam Actions

   ➤ THE LIVING LAW: Qui Tam Actions Today

II. The Black Death (1348–1349)

III. Rebuilding Criminal Justice in the Localities
   A. Policing
      1. The Decline of Frankpledge
      2. The Constable
   B. The Justices of the Peace
      1. The Origins of the Commission of the Peace
      2. An Act Concerning Justices of the Peace (1361)
      3. The Parish: Staffing Local Government

IV. Toward the Instructional Trial: Proof by Witnesses
   A. Transitioning from the Self-Informing Jury
      1. Supplementing Jurors’ Knowledge at Trial
      2. Informing Jurors Out of Court
      3. Courtroom Testimony
   B. Fortescue’s Account of Civil Jury Trial (c. 1470)
   C. Compulsory Process
      1. The Elizabethan Statute of Perjury (1563)
      2. Overcoming the Litigation Torts
      3. Silencing the Parties: Disqualification for Interest
V. Civil Justice in the Central Courts

A. The Rise of King’s Bench
   1. The Bill of Middlesex
   2. Legal Fictions

B. From Oral to Written Pleading
   1. Cessation of the Year Book Pattern of Litigation
   2. From Pleading to Adjudication
   3. From Year Books to Nominate Reports

CHAPTER 5

THE RISE OF EQUITY

I. Emergence of the Court of Chancery

   A. Origins
      1. Deficiencies of the Medieval Common Law
      2. Returning to the Fount of Justice

   B. Formation of the Court of Chancery from the Council
      1. Caseloads
      2. The Chancellors

   C. Early Petitions to the Chancellor
      1. Petition of Edward Bokelond (1394)
      2. The Writ of Subpoena
      3. Petition of Margaret Grimsby (c. 1401–1403)
      4. Chancery’s In-Basket

   D. Jurisdictional Theory
      1. “Equity Acts in Personam”
      2. “Equity Follows the Law”

   E. Resistance to Early Chancery
      1. Parliament Roll (1377)
      2. Parliament Roll (1421)

II. Chancery Procedure

   A. Bill and Answer

   B. Discovering Documents

   C. Obtaining Witness Testimony
      1. Commissions to Examine
      2. Cook v. Fountain (1676)
         a. Defendant’s Interrogatories (1674)
         b. Deposition of Sir John Hobart (1674)
      3. Secrecy as Safeguard: The “Publication” Rule and Its Rationale
      4. The Defects of Chancery’s Evidence-Gathering Process

   D. Promoting Settlement

   E. Hearing and Decree

III. The Use (Trust)

   A. Early Practice

   B. Ecclesiastical Origins?

   C. Petition of Thomas and Joan Godwin (c. 1396–1399)

   D. The Uses of the Use

   E. Common Pleas Refuses to Recognize the Use (1464)

   The Living Law: The Rise of the Management Trust
IV. Contract 311
   A. Enforcing a Promise in Chancery (1468) 311
   B. Conscience 313
      1. The Case of the Released Executor (1489) 313
      2. Saving the Soul of the Wrongdoer 315
      3. John Selden, “The Chancellor’s Foot” 316
      4. Theorizing Equity 317
      5. The Lesser Courts of Equity 319
   C. Provoking Assumpsit? 320
   D. Relief Against Seal and Record 320
      1. Obligations Under Seal 321
      2. Double Suit on a Sealed Instrument (1343) 323
      3. Chancery Intervention 323
      4. Contracts of Record 324
      5. Dialogue in Exchequer Chamber: Double Suit on a Statute Merchant (1482) 325

   THE LIVING LAW: Confessed Judgments in Modern Law 328

IV. Chancery Supremacy 329
   A. The Relations of Chancery and the Common Law Courts 329
   B. The Battle of the Courts: Bacon, Coke, and Ellesmere 329
      1. Using Habeas Corpus to Control the Scope of Remedy in Chancery 330
      2. The Statute of Praemunire (1353) 331
      3. The Res Judicata Statute (1403) 332
   C. Glanville’s Case (1615) 333
   D. Decree of King James (1616) 334

CHAPTER 6
THE MATURATION AND REFORM OF CHANCERY, AND THE FUSION OF LAW AND EQUITY 345

I. Regularizing Equity 348
   A. Chancery’s Brush with Extinction 348
      1. Parliamentary Maneuvers for Abolition in the Interregnum 348
      2. The Survival of Chancery 349
   B. Doctrinalization 351
      1. The Great Chancellors: Nottingham, Hardwicke, Eldon 351
      2. Chancery Law Reports 353
      3. The Changing Patterns of Subject-Matter Jurisdiction 354
      4. Protecting Married Women’s Property 355
   C. Appellate Review 358
   D. Parliament Assumes the Initiative in Law Reform 359
      1. The Triennial Act of 1694 360
      2. Implications for Chancery 360
   E. The Relations of Law and Equity 361

II. Reforming Chancery 362
   A. Jarndyce v. Jarndyce, Bleak House (1853) 362
   B. Chancery’s Staff 366
      1. The Unreformed Court 366
      2. Bentham’s Reminiscence of Corruption in Chancery 368
4. Ending the “Old Corruption” 369
5. Creating a Chancery Bench 370
C. Chancery Procedure: A Failed System of Fact-Finding 371
   1. Commissions to Examine 372
   2. Delegating Fact-Finding 375
   3. The Chancery Commission and the Procedure Acts of the 1850s 376

III. Fusing Law and Equity: A Transatlantic Project in Law Reform 377
A. The Elements of Fusion 377
B. Equity Courts in America 378
   1. Colonial Origins 378
   2. State and Federal Equity 381
C. The Field Code in New York 382
D. Fusion in England: The Influence of the Field Code 384
E. The Federal Rules of Civil Procedure (1938) 386
   1. “How Equity Conquered Common Law” 386
   2. The Drafting and the Drafters 389
   3. The Discovery Revolution 392

THE LIVING LAW: Clinton v. Jones 396
4. Pleading and Discovery 398
5. The Vanishing Trial: Reorienting Civil Procedure to the Pretrial 399

PART III

RESHAPING THE JURY

CHAPTER 7

CONTROLLING, REVIEWING, AND SUPPRESSING JURIES IN ENGLAND 415

I. Reversing a Medieval Jury: Attaint 417
   A. Blackstone’s Account 417
   B. The Failings of Attaint 418

II. Fining Jurors 419
   A. Juror Misconduct 419
   B. Fining Jurors in Star Chamber 421
   C. Proceedings Against the Throckmorton Jury (1554) 422
   D. Bushell’s Case (1670) 424
   E. Vaughan’s Opinion 426

III. Influencing the Jury’s Verdict 431
   A. Judicial Comment 431
   B. Requiring Disclosure and Redeliberation of a Proffered Verdict 433
   C. Arrowsmith’s Case (1678) 434
   D. Weakening Trial-Level Jury Controls 438

IV. Reviewing Verdicts: The Motion for New Trial 439
   A. Wood v. Gunston (1655) 439
   B. The Emergence of New Trial 440
C. Bright v. Enyon (1757) 445
D. Chancery 446
   1. Coddington v. Webb (1691) 446
   2. The Threat from Equity 446
E. The Grounds for New Trial (1794) 447
F. Fact into Law: The Increasing Detail of Jury Instructions 448

V. Formation of the Law of Evidence 450
A. Origins 451
B. Cross-Examination 453
C. Ending the Disqualification for Interest 454
D. The Exclusionary Principle 455

VI. The Suppression of Civil Jury Trial in England 458
A. Blackstone on the Civil Jury 458
B. The Demise of Civil Jury Trial 459

CHAPTER 8

JUDGE/JURY RELATIONS IN AMERICA 473

I. Enshrining the Jury in State and Federal Constitutions 475
A. Colonial Experience with the Jury 475
   1. The Criminal Jury: The Zenger Case (1735) 475
      a. The Background 475
      b. The Trial Report 477
   2. The Civil Jury: Erving v. Cradock (1761) 480
B. Juries and Popular Government in Revolutionary Ideology 483
C. Jury Law Finding 484
D. Constitutional Rights to Jury Trial in Criminal Cases 485
   1. The Federalist No. 83 (1788) 485
   2. Jurors’ Duty to Follow Judicial Instructions on Law in Criminal Cases 486
      a. Sparf & Hansen v. United States (1895) 486
      b. Law Nullifying in Criminal Cases 490
E. Constitutional Rights to Jury Trial in Civil Cases 492
   1. Before the Bill of Rights 492
   2. The Seventh Amendment 493

II. Shaping the American Bench 495
A. The Struggle for Learned Law 496
B. Building the State Trial and Appellate Bench 500
C. The Elective Judiciary 503
   1. Inception 504
   2. Criticism of Judicial Elections After the Civil War 506
   3. Nominating Dan Breezy 507
   4. Efforts to Moderate the Effects of Elective Judiciaries 509
   THE LIVING LAW: Campaign Contributions to Judicial Candidates 510
D. Separating Trial and Appellate Courts 511

III. Judicial Comment on the Evidence 513
A. Judicial Comment in the Early Nineteenth Century 514
B. Lawyers’ Rhetoric 516
C. The Political Movement to Restrict Comment 520
   THE LIVING LAW: Pattern Instruction on Judicial Opinion on Facts 522
PART IV
CRIMINAL JUSTICE

CHAPTER 9
REBUILDING CRIMINAL PROCEDURE: THE MARIAN PRETRIAL AND THE ALTERCATION TRIAL

I. The Rise and Fall of the Court of Star Chamber
   A. Origins and Jurisdiction
      1. Long’s Case (1607)
      2. Coke’s Account of the Court (c. 1630)
   B. Star Chamber Procedure
      1. The Main Elements
      2. The Chancery Model
      3. Smith’s Case (1586)
   C. The Fall of Star Chamber
      1. Enforcing the “Personal rule” of Charles I
      2. The Act of 1641

II. Investigating Crime and Preparing for Trial: The Marian Pretrial
   A. Reinforcing the Private Prosecutor
      1. The Marian Committal Statute (1555)
      2. Background and Purpose
   B. The Marian Pretrial in Operation
      1. Sir Thomas Smith’s Account (c. 1565)
      2. Binding Over: A Recognizance to Give Evidence at Assizes (1561)
      3. An Indictment for Burglary (1567)
      4. The Grand Jury

III. The Altercation Trial
   A. Sir Thomas Smith’s Account (c. 1565)
      1. The Court
      2. The Trial
B. R. v. John Balte (1678)
   1. The Sessions Papers
   2. The Rapidity of Trial
C. The Absence of Plea Bargaining
D. The Rule Against Defense Counsel
   1. Hawkins’ Account (1721)
   2. The Rationale and Scope of the Rule
E. The State Trials
   1. Proceedings
   2. Sanctions for Treason
F. Stephen’s Assessment of the Early-Modern Criminal Trial

IV. Trial as a Sentencing Proceeding
A. Discretion in the Administration of Criminal Justice
B. Capital Punishment
   1. The Death Penalty: Administration at Tyburn
   2. The Blood sanctions and the “Bloody Code”
C. Mitigation and Alternative Sanctions
   1. Benefit of Clergy and Transportation
   2. Partial Verdicts
   3. R. v. Elizabeth Wooly (1686)
   4. The Sentencing Role of the Jury
   5. Acquittal Rates
   6. Whipping
   7. Clemency: Trial-Based Administration of the Pardon Process

THE LIVING LAW: Jury Sentencing Today

V. The Jury-Free Realm of Summary Jurisdiction
A. Blackstone’s Account (1769)
B. Courts, Offenses, Sanctions

CHAPTER 10
THE GROWTH OF DEFENSIVE SAFEGUARD

I. Reforming Criminal Procedure After the Glorious Revolution
A. The Treason Trials of the Later Stuarts
B. Toward Judicial Independence

THE LIVING LAW: Terms of Office for Judges

C. Confronting the Disadvantages of the Treason Defendant
D. The Treason Trials Act of 1696
   1. A Charter of Defensive Safeguard
   2. The Restriction to High Treason

II. The Challenge of Urban Law Enforcement
A. Adapting the Marian Pretrial to the Metropolis
   1. The Court JP: Henry and John Fielding at Bow Street
   2. The City: The Sitting Alderman
B. Policing
C. The Reward System
   1. An Act for Encouraging the Apprehending of Highwaymen (1692)
   2. The Thieftakers and the Reward Scandals
B. The Crown Witnesses System 682
C. Lawyers for the Prosecution 686

III. The Emergence of Adversary Criminal Procedure 689
A. Defense Counsel 690
B. Silencing the Accused 693
   1. Sequencing Prosecution and Defense “Cases” 693
   2. Preparing Defendants and Defense Witnesses 695
   3. R. v. Olander Boston (1696) 696
   4. The Beyond-Reasonable-Doubt Standard of Proof 696
   5. The Privilege Against Self-Incrimination 698
C. The Law of Criminal Evidence 700
D. The Nineteenth-Century Legislation 700
   1. Full Defense of Counsel: The Prisoner’s Counsel Act (1836) 700
   2. Competency to Testify: The Criminal Evidence Act (1898) 702
E. Appellate Review 702
   1. Resisting New Trial 703
   2. The Court of Criminal Appeal 705

IV. The Atrophy of Criminal Jury Trial 706
A. Professionalizing the Magistracy 706
B. The Grand Jury: Obsolescence and Abolition 707
C. Plea Bargaining 708
D. Summary Jurisdiction 710
   1. Why Summary Proceedings? 710
   2. Public Prosecution 712

CHAPTER 11
AMERICAN CRIMINAL JUSTICE 729

I. Criminal Justice in Colonial British North America 731
A. Reception 731
B. Policing 733
C. Prosecution 734
D. Pretrial Procedure 734
   1. Marian Pretrial Procedure in the Colonies 734
   2. The Salem Witchcraft Proceedings (1692) 735
E. Criminal Jury Trial and Its Alternatives 737
   1. Adversary Criminal Trial in the Colonies 737
   2. Summary Proceedings 739
F. Sanctions 740

II. Policing 741
A. The Rise of Urban Police Forces 741
B. State Police 744
C. Federal Law Enforcement 744
   THE LIVING LAW: Forensic Science 745

III. Prosecution 746
A. The Public Prosecutor 746
B. The Persistence of Private Prosecution 747

IV. Pretrial Procedure 749
A. Preliminary Examination 749
B. Charging 750
C. Bail

V. Criminal Jury Trial and Its Alternatives 751
   A. Adversary Criminal Trial in the Early Republic 751
   B. Plea Bargaining 755
   C. Bench Trial 758

VI. Sanctions 758
   A. The Death Penalty 758
      1. Anatomization 758
      2. The Abolition Movement 760
      3. Modes of Execution 762
   B. Imprisonment 764
      1. “Reformed” Jails and Houses of Correction 764
      2. The Penitentiary 766
   C. Progressive Era Initiatives 771
      1. Parole and Indeterminate Sentencing 771
      2. The Juvenile Court 773
   D. The Collapse of the Reformative Ideal 776

VII. Constitutionalizing Criminal Procedure in the United States 779
   A. The Framers’ Constitution 780
   B. Original Understandings 780
      1. Search and Seizure 780
      2. Cruel and Unusual Punishment: Weems v. United States (1910) 785
   C. Extending Federal Criminal Procedure Standards to the States: The Formative Era 792
   D. Criminal Procedure in the Warren Court 796
   E. The Long Shadow of English Criminal Procedure 798
      2. Criticizing Originalism 801
   F. The Limits of Constitutional Criminal Procedure 802

PART V

AMERICAN INITIATIVES IN THE COMMON LAW

CHAPTER 12

LEGAL LITERATURE 815

I. Law Reporting in England 817
   A. The Nominate Reports 817
      1. The Formative Period 817
      2. Plowden’s Commentaries 819
      3. Coke’s Reports 820
   B. Burrow’s Reports 822
   C. The Authorized and Quasi-Official Reports 824

II. Law Reporting in the United States 824
   A. Official Reports: Chancellor Kent and the New York Reports 824
   B. The United States Reports 829
      1. Happenstance Origins 829
2. Justice Story Intervenes 831
C. The Profusion of Law Reports 832
D. The West System: Regional and Federal Reports 833
E. Electronic Law Reporting 836
F. Case Law and the Theory of Precedent 837

III. Blackstone's Commentaries (1765–1769) 838
A. The Institutionalist Tradition 838
B. Blackstone’s Influence in America 841
C. Kent’s Commentaries on American Law (1826–1830) 843

IV. Treatises, Codes, and Restatements 845
A. English and American Legal Treatises 845
B. The Decline of Academic Treatise-Writing in the United States 849
C. Treatises and Codes 851
D. The American Restatements
   1. Restatement of Conflict of Laws § 325 (1934) 854
   2. Restatement (Second) of Conflict of Laws §§ 6, 188 (1971) 854

V. Periodical Literature 856
A. Emergence of a Nineteenth-Century Genre 856
B. Student-Edited Law Reviews in the United States
   1. Origins 859
   2. Traits 862
   3. The Role of the University 863

CHAPTER 13
THE RECEPTION AND RECasting OF ENGLISH LAW 873

I. Law in Colonial British North America 875
A. English Law in the American Colonies 875
B. American Departures 879

II. Property Law 881
A. English Background 881
B. American Developments
   1. Inheritance 881
   2. Alienability 881
   3. Trespass 882

III. Contract Law 884
A. English Background 884
B. American Developments
   1. The Will Theory of Contract 884
   2. Third-Party Beneficiary Contracts 886
   3. Remedies 887

IV. Tort Law 888
A. English Background 888
B. American Developments
   1. The Rise of Negligence 889
   2. The Fellow Servant Rule and the Assumption-of-Risk Doctrine 890
   3. Contributory Negligence 891
   4. Proximate Cause 892
5. The Erosion of the Common Law Bars 894
6. Strict Liability 896
7. The Industrial Accident Crisis 898
8. Workers’ Compensation 900
9. The Litigation “Explosion” 902

V. The Law of Slavery 903
A. English Background 903
B. American Developments 903
1. Slave Sales 903
2. The Master/Slave Relationship 905

VI. Conflict of Laws 908
A. Scott v. Emerson (1852) 909
B. Conflicts Questions and American Federalism 914
1. Kent and Story on Comity 914
2. The Quest for Consensus in American Conflicts Law 916

VII. Family Law 917
A. English Background 917
B. American Developments 918
1. Marriage 918
2. Divorce 920
3. Adoption 921

CHAPTER 14
LEGAL EDUCATION 929

I. Legal Education in England in the Seventeenth and Eighteenth Centuries 933
A. The Cessation of Organized Legal Education at the Inns of Court 933
B. Reading the Law 934

II. Legal Education in Colonial America 936
A. An Apprenticeship Agreement (1723) 937
B. The Complaints of “Tyro Philolegis” (1745) 939
C. Restricting Entry: “Agreement of the Bar of New York City” (1756) 940

THE LIVING LAW: Legal Education as an Antitrust Problem 942

III. Legal Education in the Early Republic 942
A. Law in the Colleges 942
B. The Proprietary Law Schools 944
1. The Litchfield Law School 944
2. Law Office Law Schools 949
3. The Demise of Litchfield 950

IV. The Emergence of University Law Schools 953
A. The First University Law Schools 953
B. The “Text-and-Recitation” Method of Instruction 956
C. Legal Education and the Legal Profession 957
D. Legal Education at Wisconsin in the 1860s 958

V. The Langdellian Revolution at Harvard 960
A. Absorbing the Lessons of the German Research University 960
B. Langdell’s Account of His Systemic Reforms (1886) 962