Introduction

A. Ethics, morals, and professionalism ................................................. 1
B. Some central themes in this book .................................................... 8
   1. Conflicts of interest ................................................................. 8
   2. Truthfulness ............................................................................. 9
   3. Lawyers’ duties to clients versus their duties to the justice system ......................................................... 9
   4. Lawyers’ personal and professional interests versus their fiduciary obligations ................................ 11
   5. Self-interest as a theme in regulation of lawyers ....................... 11
   6. Lawyers as employees: Institutional pressures on ethical judgments ....................................................... 12
   7. The changing legal profession .................................................... 13
C. The structure of this book ............................................................... 14
D. The rules quoted in this book: A note on sources ......................... 16
E. Stylistic decisions ........................................................................ 16

Chapter 1: The Regulation of Lawyers ............................................. 19

A. Institutions that regulate lawyers .................................................. 20
   1. The highest state courts .............................................................. 21
      a. The responsibility of “self-regulation” ................................... 21
      b. The inherent powers doctrine ............................................ 24
   2. State and local bar associations ............................................... 25
   3. Lawyer disciplinary agencies .................................................. 26
4. American Bar Association ............................................. 27
5. American Law Institute ............................................. 28
6. Federal and state courts ............................................. 29
7. Legislatures ......................................................... 30
8. Administrative agencies ........................................... 32
9. Prosecutors ........................................................... 33
10. Malpractice insurers ............................................... 34
11. Law firms and other employers ................................. 35
12. Clients ......................................................................... 35
B. State ethics codes ................................................... 36
C. Admission to practice ................................................ 42
1. A short history of bar admission .................................. 42
2. Contemporary bar admission requirements .................. 43
3. The bar examination .................................................. 44

   Problem 1-1: The New Country ................................. 46
4. The character and fitness inquiry .................................. 46
   a. Criteria for evaluation ............................................ 47
   b. Filling out the character questionnaire .................... 54 Problem 1-2: Weed .................................................... 57
   c. Mental health of applicants .................................... 59
   d. Law school discipline: A preliminary screening process 61
   Problem 1-3: The Doctored Resume ............................ 61

Chapter 2: Lawyer Liability 65

A. Professional discipline .............................................. 66
   1. History and process of lawyer discipline .................... 67
   2. Grounds for discipline ............................................ 74
   Problem 2-1: The Dying Mother ................................. 78
   Problem 2-2: “I’m Not Driving” ................................. 87
   3. Reporting misconduct by other lawyers ..................... 90
      a. The duty to report misconduct ............................ 91 Problem 2-3: Exculpatory Evidence ....................... 95
      b. Lawyers’ responsibility for ethical misconduct by colleagues and superiors 96 Problem 2-4: The Little Hearing ............................ 102
      c. Legal protections for subordinate lawyers ............. 105
         Case study: The strange tale of Scott McKay Wolas 108
         Kelly v. Hunton & Williams ............................... 111

B. Civil liability of lawyers ............................................. 119
   1. Legal malpractice .................................................. 120
   2. Malpractice insurance ............................................ 125
3. Other civil liability of lawyers ........................................... 127
   a. Liability for breach of contract .................................... 127
   b. Liability for violation of regulatory statutes .................... 128

4. Disqualification for conflicts of interest .......................... 128
C. Criminal liability of lawyers .......................................... 128
D. Client protection funds ................................................ 133
E. Summing up: The law governing lawyers ......................... 139

Chapter 3: The Duty to Protect Client Confidences 141

A. The basic principle of confidentiality ............................... 141
   1. Protection of “information relating to the representation of a client” .............................................................. 142 Problem 3-1: Your Dinner with Anna ......................... 145
   2. Protection of information if there is a reasonable prospect of harm to a client’s interests .................................... 149
   3. The bottom line on informal communications ................ 150
   4. Additional cautions about protecting client confidences .... 151
B. Exceptions to the duty to protect confidences ................... 155
   1. Revelation of past criminal conduct ............................ 158 Case study: The missing persons: The defense of Robert Garrow ...................................................... 158
       Problem 3-2: The Missing Persons, Scene 1 ................. 159
       Problem 3-3: The Missing Persons, Scene 2 ............... 163
       The real case ....................................................... 164
       The Belge case .................................................... 165
       People v. Belge .................................................... 166
       People v. Belge (appeal) ........................................ 167
       Problem 3-4: The Missing Persons, Scene 3 ............... 168
   2. The risk of future injury or death ................................ 170
       Problem 3-5: Rat Poison .......................................... 173
   3. Client frauds and crimes that cause financial harm .......... 175
       a. Ethics rules allowing revelation of client crimes or frauds to prevent, mitigate, or remedy harm to others ........ 175
       b. Enron and the Sarbanes-Oxley Act .......................... 178 Recent developments in the implementation of Sarbanes-Oxley ............................................... 181
       Problem 3-6: Reese’s Leases .................................. 185
   4. Revealing confidences to obtain advice about legal ethics ... 188
   5. Using a client’s confidential information to protect the lawyer’s interests ................................................... 188
   6. Revealing confidences to comply with a court order or other law ............................................................ 191
7. Revealing confidences to prevent certain conflicts of interest ............191
C. Use or disclosure of confidential information for personal gain or to benefit another client ...................................................... 193

Problem 3-7: An Investment Project ........................................... 194
D. Talking to clients about confidentiality ........................................ 195

Chapter 4: The Attorney-Client Privilege and the Work Product Doctrine 197

A. Confidentiality and attorney-client privilege compared ................. 198
1. Ethics law versus evidence law .............................................. 199
2. Difference in scope .............................................................. 201
3. Different methods of enforcement .......................................... 201
4. When attorney-client privilege is invoked .................................. 202
5. Why study a rule of evidence in a professional responsibility course? ................................................................. 203
6. Source of the privilege ......................................................... 203
B. The elements of attorney-client privilege .................................. 204
1. Communication ................................................................. 204
2. Privileged persons ............................................................. 204
3. Communication in confidence .............................................. 206
4. Communication for the purpose of seeking legal assistance .......... 207
C. Client identity ..................................................................... 212
D. Waiver .................................................................................. 213
1. Waiver by the client ............................................................. 213
2. Waiver by the lawyer ............................................................ 214
3. Waiver by putting privileged communication into issue .......... 216
4. Waiver as to a conversation by disclosure of part of it .............. 216
5. Compliance with court orders .............................................. 216

Problem 4-1: Murder for Hire ....................................................... 217
E. The crime-fraud exception ....................................................... 219
1. No privilege if a client seeks assistance with a crime or fraud ...... 219
2. Procedure for challenging a claim of privilege .......................... 223
3. The potential importance of privilege claims in litigation ......... 223
F. Revelations permitted or required by the ethics codes ............... 224
G. The death of the client ............................................................ 225
1. Introduction ........................................................................ 225

Problem 4-2: A Secret Confession ................................................. 225
2. The suicide of Vincent Foster .............................................. 225
   a. Factual background ......................................................... 227
   b. The Supreme Court evaluates the privilege claim ................. 228 Swidler & Berlin v. United States ................................. 228
H. The work product doctrine ............................................. 230
   1. Work product prepared in anticipation of litigation ............ 230
   2. Origins of the work product rule .................................. 230
   3. Materials not created or collected in anticipation of litigation .... 231
   4. A qualified protection .................................................. 231
   5. Protection of a lawyer’s “mental impressions” .................... 232
   6. Protection of work product, not underlying information ........ 232
   7. Expert witnesses ....................................................... 233
I. The attorney-client privilege for corporations ....................... 233
   1. The Upjohn case ....................................................... 233
   2. Governmental requests for waiver of privilege ................. 235

Problem 4-3: Worldwide Bribery ........................................ 237
J. The attorney-client privilege for government officials ............. 238

Chapter 5: Relationships Between Lawyers and Clients ............. 239

A. Formation of the lawyer-client relationship ......................... 240
   1. Lawyer discretion in selection of clients ......................... 240
   2. Offering advice as the basis for a lawyer-client relationship ... 246
      Togstad v. Vesely, Otto, Miller & Keefe .......................... 247
B. Lawyers’ responsibilities as agents .................................. 253
   1. Express and implied authority ....................................... 254
   2. Apparent authority ..................................................... 255
   3. Authority to settle litigation ........................................ 256
C. Lawyers’ duties of competence, honesty, communication, and diligence ........................................ 257
   1. Competence ............................................................. 257
      Problem 5-1: The Washing Machine ............................... 260
   2. Competence in criminal cases ....................................... 261
      a. Strickland v. Washington ......................................... 262
      b. The aftermath of Strickland ..................................... 264
      Problem 5-2: A Desire to Investigate .............................. 273
   3. Diligence ............................................................... 274
   4. Candor and communication ........................................... 275
      a. Is it ever okay to lie? .............................................. 275
      b. Lying versus deception: Is there a moral distinction? .... 277
      c. Truth versus truthfulness ......................................... 278
      d. Honesty and communication under the ethics rules ......... 278
      e. Civil liability for dishonesty to clients ........................ 280
   5. Candor in counseling ................................................. 282
      Problem 5-3: Torture .................................................. 283
6. Duties imposed by contract in addition to those imposed by the ethics codes ........................................... 286
7. Contractual reduction of a lawyer’s duties: Client waiver of certain lawyer duties and “unbundled legal services” ............ 287
8. Contractual modification of a lawyer’s duties: Collaborative law practice ......................................................... 291
D. Who calls the shots? .................................................................................................................................................. 293
1. The competent adult client ........................................................................................................................................ 293
   Jones v. Barnes .......................................................................................................................................................... 297
2. Clients with diminished capacity ................................................................................................................................. 301
   a. Clients who may have mental impairments ........................................................................................................... 302
   Problem 5-4: The Package Bomber ................................................. 303
   Problem 5-5: Vinyl Windows ................................................................. 310 Problem 5-6: Tightening the Knot ....................................................... 312
   b. Juveniles ................................................................................................................................................................. 313
Frances Gall Hill, Clinical Education and the “Best Interest” Representation of Children in Custody Disputes: Challenges and Opportunities in Lawyering and Pedagogy ....................................................... 315
Problem 5-7: The Foster Child ................................................................. 317
E. Terminating a lawyer-client relationship .................................................................................................................. 320
1. Duties to the client at the conclusion of the relationship ................................................................. 320
   Problem 5-8: The Candid Notes ................................................................. 323
2. Grounds for termination before the work is completed ......................................................................................... 324
   a. When the client fires the lawyer ........................................................................................................................... 325
   b. When continued representation would involve unethical conduct ...................................................... 325
   c. When the lawyer wants to terminate the relationship ...................................................................................... 325
   d. Matters in litigation ................................................................................................................................................ 326
   e. When the client stops paying the fee .................................................................................................................. 327
   f. When the case imposes an unreasonable financial burden on the lawyer .................................................. 327
   g. When the client will not cooperate ................................................................................................................ 327
3. Fees ........................................................................................................................................................................... 328

Chapter 6: Conflicts of Interest: Current Clients ........................................................................................................ 329
A. An introduction to conflicts of interest ................................................................. 330
1. Why the study of conflicts is difficult ............................................................................................................... 333
2. How the conflicts chapters are organized .................................................................................................... 335
3. How the conflicts rules are organized ........................................................................................................ 336
B. General principles in evaluating concurrent conflicts .... 337
   1. Rule 1.7 ................................................................. 337
      a. Direct adversity ...................................................... 339
      b. Material limitation .............................................. 340
   2. How to evaluate conflicts ........................................ 341
   3. Nonconsentable conflicts ........................................ 341
      a. The lawyer’s reasonable belief ................................ 342
      b. Representation prohibited by law ............................. 343
      c. Suing one client on behalf of another client .......... 343
   4. Informed consent ................................................... 344
   5. Withdrawal and disqualification ................................ 349

Problem 6-1: The Injured Passengers, Scene 1 ............ 351
6. Imputation of concurrent conflicts ............................. 352

Problem 6-2: Food Poisoning ....................................... 353

C. Conflicts between current clients in litigation ............ 356
   1. Suing a current client ............................................. 356

Problem 6-3: I Thought You Were My Lawyer! .......... 358
   2. Cross-examining a current client ............................... 359
   3. Representation of co-plaintiffs or co-defendants in civil litigation ............................................................... 360

Problem 6-4: The Injured Passengers, Scene 2 ............ 364
   4. Representing economic competitors in unrelated matters 364
   5. Conflicts in public interest litigation .......................... 365

Problem 6-5: The Prisoners’ Dilemma .......................... 366
6. Positional conflicts: Taking inconsistent legal positions in litigation .............................................................. 367

Problem 6-6: Top Gun ................................................. 369

D. Conflicts involving prospective clients ........................ 370

Problem 6-7: The Secret Affair ..................................... 374

Chapter 7: Current Client Conflicts in Particular Practice Settings ......................................................... 377

A. Representing both parties to a transaction .................. 378
B. Representing organizations ....................................... 382
   1. Who is the client? ................................................... 385
   2. Representing the entity and employees ....................... 387
   3. Duty to protect confidences of employees ................. 388
   4. Responding to unlawful conduct by corporate officers and other employees ....................................................... 388
   5. Entity lawyers on boards of directors ....................... 389

Problem 7-1: A Motion to Disqualify ............................. 390
Problem 7-2: My Client’s Subsidiary ......................................... 391
C. Representing co-defendants in criminal cases ....................... 393
   1. Costs and benefits of joint representation of co-defendants .... 393
   2. Ethics rules and the Sixth Amendment ........................... 395
Problem 7-3: Police Brutality, Scene 1 ................................. 402
Problem 7-4: Police Brutality, Scene 2 ................................. 403
Problem 7-5: Police Brutality, Scene 3 ................................. 404
D. Representing co-defendants in civil cases ............................ 405
Problem 7-6: Termination of Parental Rights ........................... 406
E. Representing family members ........................................... 408
   1. Representing both spouses in a divorce ........................... 408
   2. Representing family members in estate planning ............... 409
      Florida Bar Opinion 95-4 ........................................ 409
Problem 7-7: Representing the McCarthys ............................. 411
F. Representing insurance companies and insured persons .......... 413
Problem 7-8: Two Masters ................................................. 417
G. Representing employers and immigrant employees ................ 418
H. Representing plaintiffs in class actions .............................. 420
I. Representing parties to aggregate settlements of individual cases .... 423

Chapter 8: Conflicts Involving Former Clients ....................... 427

A. Nature of conflicts between present and former clients ............ 428
B. Duties to former clients ................................................. 430
C. Distinguishing present and former clients ........................... 432
D. Evaluating successive conflicts ....................................... 435
   1. The same matter .................................................. 436
   2. Substantial relationship ......................................... 437
      An example of substantial relationship analysis:
      Westinghouse v. Gulf ............................................ 445
   3. Material adversity ............................................... 447
Problem 8-1: Keeping in Touch ........................................... 449
E. Addressing former client conflicts in practice ....................... 449
   Problem 8-2: Toxic Waste ............................................ 451
F. Representing the competitor of a former client ....................... 454
   The Maritrans case ............................................... 454
G. Conflicts between the interests of a present client and a client who was represented by a lawyer’s former firm .................... 455
   1. Analyzing former firm conflicts ................................ 457
   2. Using or revealing a former client’s confidences ............... 458
H. Imputation of former client conflicts to affiliated lawyers ......... 460
   Problem 8-3: A Brief Consultation .................................. 470
   Problem 8-4: The Fatal Shot ....................................... 473
Chapter 9: Conflicts Between Lawyers and Clients

A. Legal fees ................................................................. 479
   1. Lawyer-client fee contracts ................................. 479
      a. Types of fee agreements ................................. 480
      b. Reasonable fees ............................................. 481 Matter of Fordham ........................................... 485
      c. Communication about fee arrangements .......... 488 Problem 9-1: An Unreasonable Fee? ............... 490
      d. Modification of fee agreements ..................... 491
         Problem 9-2: Rising Prices ............................. 492
   2. Regulation of hourly billing and billing for expenses . 493
      Patrick J. Schiltz, On Being a Happy, Healthy, and Ethical Member of an Unhappy, Unhealthy, and Unethical Profession .......................................................... 496
      Lisa G. Lerman, Scenes from a Law Firm .............. 508
   3. Contingent fees .................................................... 514
      a. In general ....................................................... 514
      b. Criminal and domestic relations cases .......... 520
   4. Forbidden and restricted fee and expense arrangements .... 522
      a. Buying legal claims ....................................... 522
      b. Financial assistance to a client .................... 523 Problem 9-3: An Impoverished Client ............... 523
      c. Publication rights ......................................... 524
      d. Advance payment of fees and nonrefundable retainer fees . 525
   5. Fee disputes .......................................................... 527
      a. Prospective limitations of lawyers' liability and settlement of claims against lawyers ............................... 527
      b. Fee arbitration .............................................. 530
      c. Collection of fees ......................................... 531
      d. Fees owed to a lawyer who withdraws or is fired before the matter is completed ............................... 534
   6. Dividing fees with other firms or with nonlawyers ....... 534
      a. Division of fees between lawyers not in the same firm ............................... 534
      b. Sharing fees with nonlawyers ....................... 537
   7. Payment of fees by a third party ............................. 538

B. Lawyer as custodian of client property and documents ......... 539
   1. Client trust accounts .......................................... 539
   2. Responsibility for client property ....................... 540
      a. Prompt delivery of funds or property ............... 540
      b. Disputes about money or property in lawyer's possession .... 541
      c. Lawyers' responsibilities to clients' creditors .... 541
   3. Administering estates and trusts ........................... 542
C. Conflicts with lawyers’ personal or business interests ............................. 543
   1. In general ......................................................................................... 543
   2. Business transactions between lawyer and client ............................. 544
   3. Gifts from clients ............................................................................. 549
   4. Sexual relationships with clients ..................................................... 550
   5. Intimate or family relationships with adverse lawyers ..................... 553
   6. Imputation of lawyer-client conflicts to other lawyers in a firm .......... 553
      a. Financial interest conflicts ............................................................. 553
      b. General rule on imputation of conflicts with a lawyer’s interests 553

Chapter 10: Conflicts Issues for Government Lawyers and Judges 555

A. Regulation of government lawyers and those who lobby them ............ 556
   1. The law governing lobbying: An introduction .................................... 556
   2. Conflict of interest and “revolving door” statutes ............................. 558

B. Successive conflicts of former and present government lawyers ........ 560
   1. Conflicts of former government lawyers in private practice ............. 561
      a. What is a “matter”? ..................................................................... 562
      b. Personal and substantial participation ......................................... 563
      c. Screening of former government lawyers ..................................... 565
      d. Confidential government information ......................................... 566
   2. Conflicts of government lawyers who formerly worked in private practice ................................................................................. 568

   Problem 10-1: The District Attorney .............................................. 569

C. Conflicts involving judges, arbitrators, and mediators ...................... 570
   1. History of judicial ethics codes in the United States ......................... 571
   2. Overview of the Model Code of Judicial Conduct ............................ 573
   3. Impartiality and fairness; avoidance of bias, prejudice, and harassment .......................................................... 576
   4. Ex parte communications .................................................................. 580
   5. Disqualification of judges .................................................................. 582

   Problem 10-2: A Trip to Monte Carlo .............................................. 590

   Problem 10-3: The Judge’s Former Professor .................................... 592

   6. Conflicts rules for former judges, law clerks, arbitrators, and mediators .................................................................................. 594
      a. Personal and substantial participation ........................................... 594
      b. Imputation .................................................................................... 595
      c. Employment negotiation .............................................................. 595
Chapter 11: Lawyers’ Duties to Courts

A. Being a good person in an adversary system ........................................ 598
   Stephen Gillers, Can a Good Lawyer Be a Bad Person? ......................... 600
B. Investigation before filing a complaint ............................................... 601
   Problem 11-1: Your Visit from Paula Jones ........................................ 608
C. Truth and falsity in litigation ............................................................. 609
   1. The rules on candor to tribunals ...................................................... 609
   2. Which rule applies when? A taxonomy of truth-telling problems in litigation ...................................................................... 611
   3. A lawyer’s duties if a client or witness intends to give false testimony .............................................................................. 613
      a. When the lawyer believes that a criminal defendant intends to lie on the stand .......................................................... 613 Nix v. Whiteside ........................................................................ 613
      b. A lawyer’s “knowledge” of a client’s intent to give false testimony .................................................................................... 618
         Problem 11-2: Flight from Sudan, Scene 1 .................................... 620
      c. A lawyer’s duties if a client intends to mislead the court without lying ............................................................................. 624
         Problem 11-3: Flight from Sudan, Scene 2 .................................... 626
      d. A lawyer’s duty if he has reason to know that a client has lied to a tribunal .................................................................. 628
      e. Variations in state rules on candor to tribunals ............................... 628
   4. False impressions created by lawyers during litigation ....................... 631
      How Simpson Lawyers Bamboozled a Jury ..................................... 631
      Problem 11-4: The Drug Test ......................................................... 633 Problem 11-5: The Body Double ..................................................... 634
   5. Lawyers’ duties of truthfulness in preparing witnesses to testify ............................................................................................ 635
      Problem 11-6: Refreshing Recollection ........................................... 638
D. Concealment of physical evidence and documents ............................. 640
   1. Duties of criminal defense lawyers with respect to evidence of crimes ....................................................................................... 640
      Problem 11-7: Child Pornography ................................................... 649
   2. Concealment of documents and other evidence in civil and criminal cases ......................................................................... 650
      a. A limited obligation to reveal ...................................................... 650
      b. A lawyer’s duties in responding to discovery requests ................. 652
         Wayne D. Brazil, Views from the Front Lines: Observations by Chicago Lawyers About the System of Civil Discovery ......................................................... 653
Ethics: Beyond the Rules ................................................. 655

Problem 11-8: The Damaging Documents ....................... 658
E. The duty to disclose adverse legal authority .................... 661
F. Disclosures in ex parte proceedings .............................. 663
G. Improper influences on judges and juries ...................... 665
   1. Improper influences on judges .................................. 665
      a. Ex parte communication with judges .......................... 665
      b. Campaign contributions ...................................... 667
   2. Improper influences on juries ................................... 668
      a. Lawyers’ comments to the press ............................. 668
         Narrowing restrictions on trial publicity: the Gentile case 668
Problem 11-9: A Letter to the Editor ................................. 672
Scott Brede, A Notable Case of Exceptionally Unsafe Sex ........ 674
b. Impeachment of truthful witnesses ............................... 675
   Harry I. Subin, The Criminal Defense Lawyer’s “Different Mission”: Reflections on the “Right” to Present a False Case 676
c. Statements by lawyers during jury trials ....................... 677
H. Lawyers’ duties in nonadjudicative proceedings ............... 683

Chapter 12: Lawyers’ Duties to Adversaries and Third Persons 687

A. Communications with lawyers and third persons ............... 688
   1. Deception of third persons ....................................... 688
      a. The duty to avoid material false statements ............... 688 Problem 12-1: Emergency Food Stamps ...................... 689
      b. Lawyers’ duties of truthfulness in fact investigation .... 692
         The Gatti Case .................................................. 693
         Note About Gatti ............................................. 694
      c. Lawyers’ duties of truthfulness in negotiation .......... 697
d. Receipt of inadvertently transmitted information, including metadata .................................................. 700
e. Obligation of disclosure to third persons ....................... 702
2. Restrictions on contact with represented persons ............ 702
   The Messing case .................................................. 708
3. Restrictions on contact with unrepresented persons .......... 710
   Problem 12-2: The Complaining Witness ....................... 715
4. Respect for the rights of third persons ......................... 717
   Problem 12-3: The Break-In ....................................... 718
   Note: Stolen documents as evidence .............................. 719
B. Duties of prosecutors ................................................. 719
   Ken Armstrong & Maurice Possley, Trial and Error, Part 1:
   Verdict: Dishonor .................................................. 720
   1. Undercover investigations .................................. 722
      Problem 12-4: The Prosecutor’s Masquerade .......... 725
      Problem 12-5: The Corrupt Governor ................. 726
   2. Required investigation by prosecutors before charges are filed ............................................................... 728
   3. Concealment of exculpatory evidence .................. 730
      The Duke lacrosse case .................................. 730
   4. Unreliable evidence .......................................... 732
   5. Pretrial publicity .............................................. 735
   6. Enforcement .................................................. 736

Ellen Yaroshefsky, Wrongful Convictions: It Is Time to Take Prosecution Discipline Seriously .......... 736
C. Conduct prejudicial to the administration of justice .... 738
   Problem 12-6: A Letter of Commendation .......... 740
D. Are lawyers really too zealous? .............................. 741

Ted Schneyer, Moral Philosophy’s Standard Misconception of Legal Ethics .................................................. 742

Chapter 13: The Provision of Legal Services ................. 745

A. The unmet need for legal services .......................... 746
B. Sources of free legal services for those who cannot afford legal fees .... 753
   1. Right to counsel for indigent litigants .................. 753
      a. Criminal defendants ................................... 753
         Richard C. Dieter, With Justice for Few: The Growing Crisis in Death Penalty Representation .............. 758
         b. Parties in civil and administrative proceedings ... 761
   2. Civil legal aid .................................................. 765
      a. Legal Services Corporation .............................. 765
         Alan W. Houseman & Linda E. Perle, Securing Equal Justice for All: A Brief History of Civil Legal Assistance in the United States ................. 766 Problem 13-1: Restrictions on Legal Services ........ 773
      b. Other civil legal services ................................ 775
      c. The IOLTA controversy .................................. 775
   3. Fee-shifting statutes ......................................... 776
      a. Fee waiver as a term of a settlement ................ 777
      b. Who is a “prevailing party” entitled to attorneys’ fees? .... 780
         Margaret Graham Tebo, Fee-Shifting Fallout ......... 781
4. Pro bono representation .................................................. 781
   Judith L. Maute, Changing Conceptions of Lawyers’ Pro Bono Responsibilities: From Chance Noblesse Oblige to Stated Expectations ........................................... 789 Problem 13-2: Mandatory Pro Bono Service ................. 792
5. Loan forgiveness and scholarships for public service lawyers .......... 793
   C. Restrictions on participation by nonlawyers in providing legal services .................................................. 795
      1. Unauthorized practice of law statutes ......................... 795
         David C. Vladeck, Statement Before the ABA Commission on Non-lawyer Practice ....................... 797
         Problem 13-3: Special Education ......................... 803
      2. The prohibition of multidisciplinary practice ............... 805
      3. The prohibition of nonlawyer investment in law firms ..... 809
         Problem 13-4: Service to the Poor and Middle Class .... 813

Chapter 14: The American Legal Profession: Past, Present, and Future 815

A. History and development of the U.S. legal profession ........ 817
   1. Pre-revolutionary America ...................................... 817
   2. The nineteenth and twentieth centuries ...................... 818
   3. A short history of American legal education ................. 819
B. Advertising and solicitation ........................................... 822
   1. Advertising of legal services ................................. 822
      Bates v. State Bar of Arizona .................................. 822
   2. Solicitation of clients ........................................ 829
      Problem 14-1: Do You Need a Lawyer? ...................... 832
C. Diversity and discrimination in U.S. law firms .................. 834
   1. Women ................................................ 836
      Problem 14-2: The Job Interview ......................... 841
   2. People of color ......................................... 842
   3. Lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender lawyers ........... 847
   4. Lawyers with disabilities .................................. 849
   5. Other bases of discrimination .............................. 850
D. Legal culture in certain practice settings ......................... 851
   1. Large firms .......................................... 856
      Michael Asimow, Embodiment of Evil: Law Firms in the Movies .................................................. 857
      Patrick J. Schiltz, On Being a Happy, Healthy, and Ethical Member of an Unhappy, Unhealthy, and Unethical Profession .............................................. 860
2. Small firms ......................................................... 863
   a. Salaries and attrition ........................................ 863
   b. Setting one's own schedule ................................ 863
   c. Bringing in business ......................................... 866
   d. Promotion in small firms ................................... 866
   e. Other features of small-firm life ......................... 866
   f. Urban versus rural practice ................................. 867
   g. Gender patterns in small firms ............................ 868
   h. The future of small firms ................................... 868
   i. Small firms and the Internet ............................... 869
3. Government and nonprofit organizations .................... 869

E. Work settings for lawyers: Culture and satisfaction .......... 871
F. The business of law practice in the twenty-first century ... 875
   1. The 2008 recession: Impact on the legal profession .... 876
   2. Structural changes in private law practice ................ 879
   3. Temporary and contract lawyers ............................ 880
   4. Lawyers in retail stores ..................................... 882
   5. The Internet as a substitute for legal services .......... 883
   6. Outsourcing legal work to cut labor costs: Offshoring and onshoring .................................................. 884
   7. Multistate practice: A challenge to state-based licensing .... 888
      Stephen Gillers, It's an MJP World: Model Rules
      Revisions Open the Door for Lawyers to Work
      Outside Their Home Jurisdictions ......................... 890
   8. Globalization of law practice ............................... 895
   9. New methods of financing law firms and legal work ....... 895

About the Authors .................................................... 901
Table of Articles, Books, and Reports .......................... 00
Table of Cases ......................................................... 00
Table of Rules, Restatements, Statutes, Bar Opinions, and Other Standards .................................................. 00
Index ................................................................. 00